This annual belongs to
Lori Hendricks

Lori,

Well, I have managed somehow to survive you for a whole year. I don't know how but I did. After a bunch of slaps, kicks, punches, scratches, bites, and pinches, I'm still here somehow. It's been a short year it seems but sometimes it seemed to just drag along. I don't know for sure what I'm going to do after I'm out of this place. Whatever or wherever I wind up, I don't think I'll ever forget you. We've had a bunch of laughs over the two years I've known you, and there were a couple of bad times too. I'm glad that we were able to work differences out and still be friends. ~~One thing~~ I'm sorry about one thing in particular that happened and I'm especially glad that you believed me when I told you the truth. Well, I'm sorry that the year is almost over because I know the last day I'll probably see you and all of my other friends is fast approaching. I hope that we'll still be best of friends in the future if we ever meet again or not. Good luck and be good.

Your Friend
Jim Calhoun

Lori,
I'm really glad I got to know you this year. You are very sweet & pretty & highly of yourself. I think sweet & pretty run in summer. Love ya

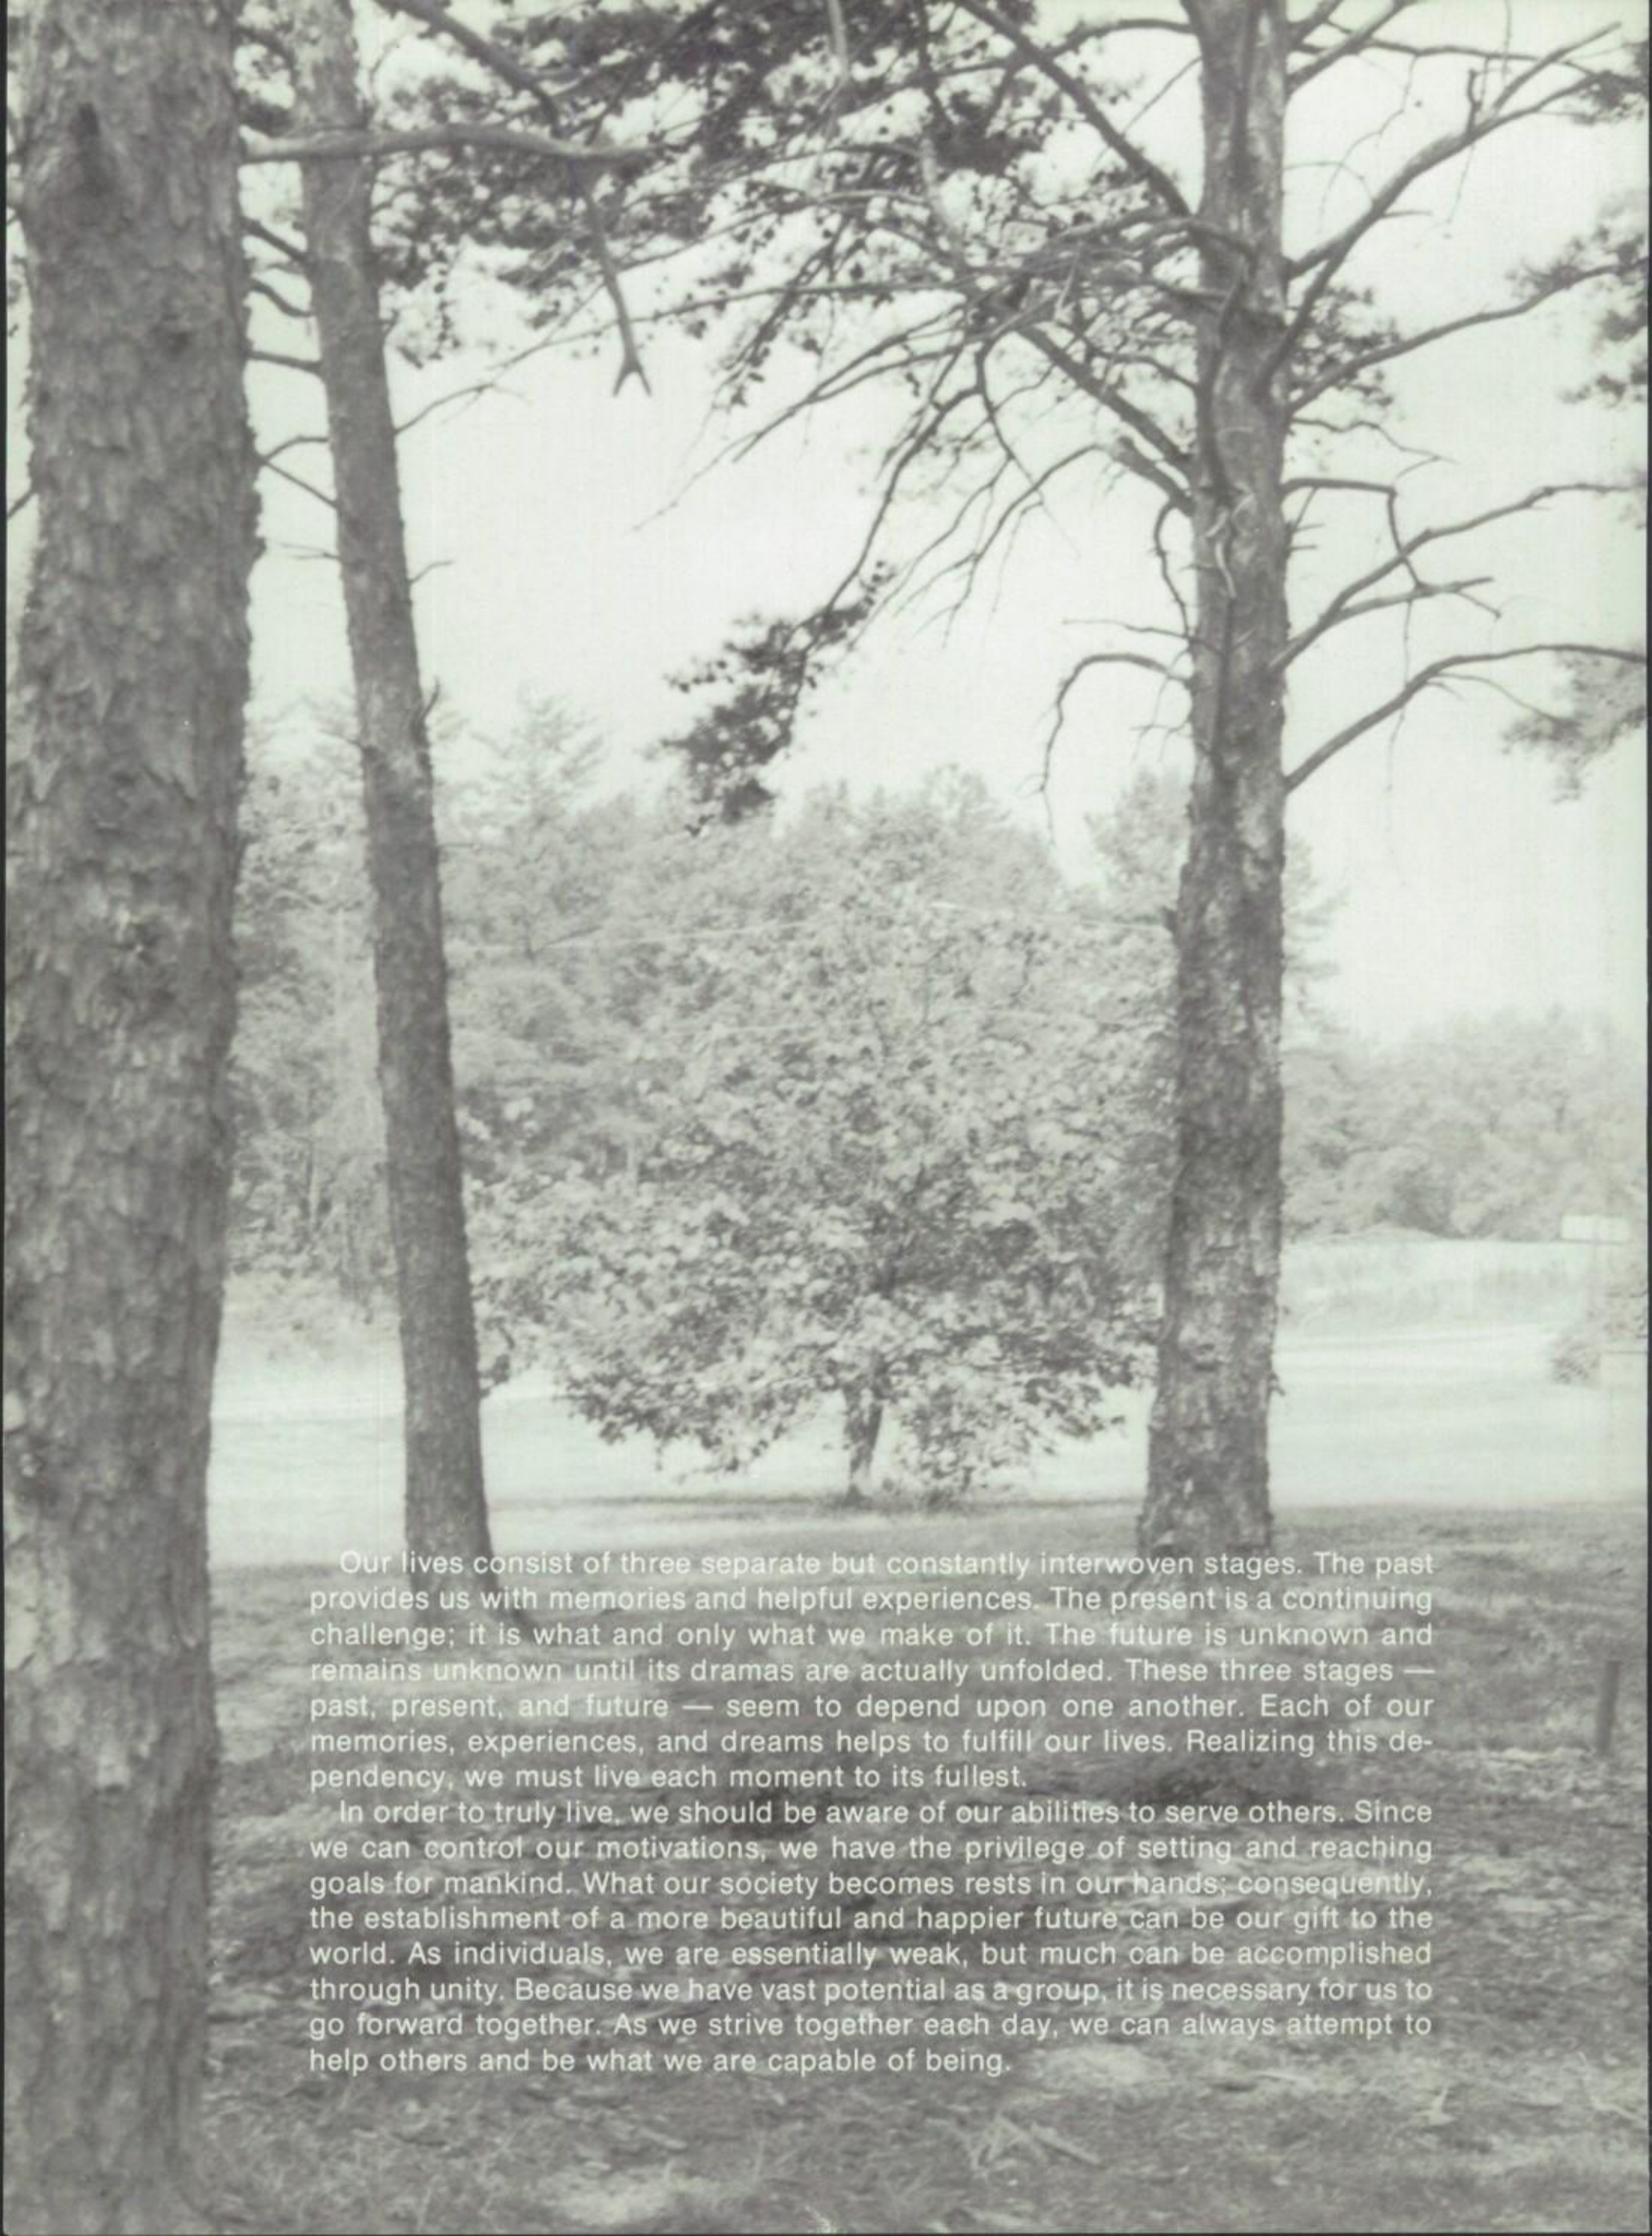
ARIES '79
Volume 17
Northeast Sr. High School
McLeansville, N.C. 27301



Our lives consist of three separate but constantly interwoven stages. The past provides us with memories and helpful experiences. The present is a continuing challenge; it is what and only what we make of it. The future is unknown and remains unknown until its dramas are actually unfolded. These three stages — past, present, and future — seem to depend upon one another. Each of our memories, experiences, and dreams helps to fulfill our lives. Realizing this dependency, we must live each moment to its fullest.

In order to truly live, we should be aware of our abilities to serve others. Since we can control our motivations, we have the privilege of setting and reaching goals for mankind. What our society becomes rests in our hands; consequently, the establishment of a more beautiful and happier future can be our gift to the world. As individuals, we are essentially weak, but much can be accomplished through unity. Because we have vast potential as a group, it is necessary for us to go forward together. As we strive together each day, we can always attempt to help others and be what we are capable of being.

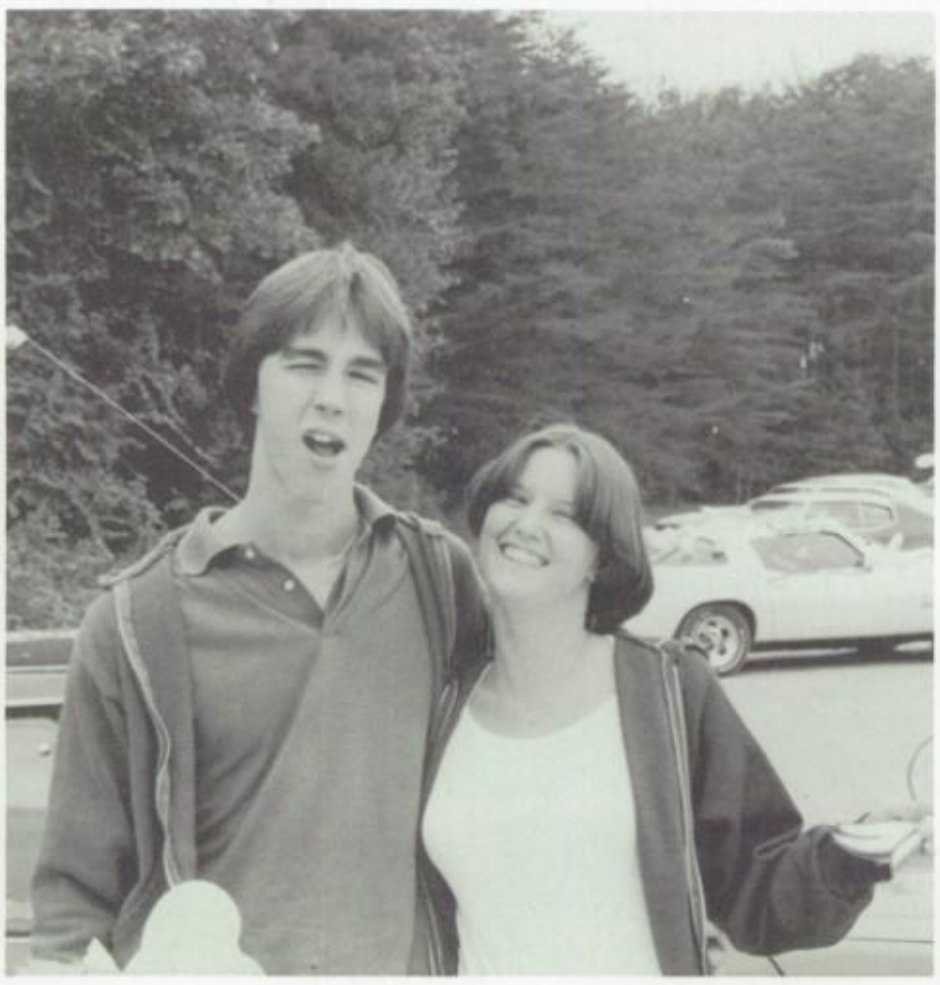
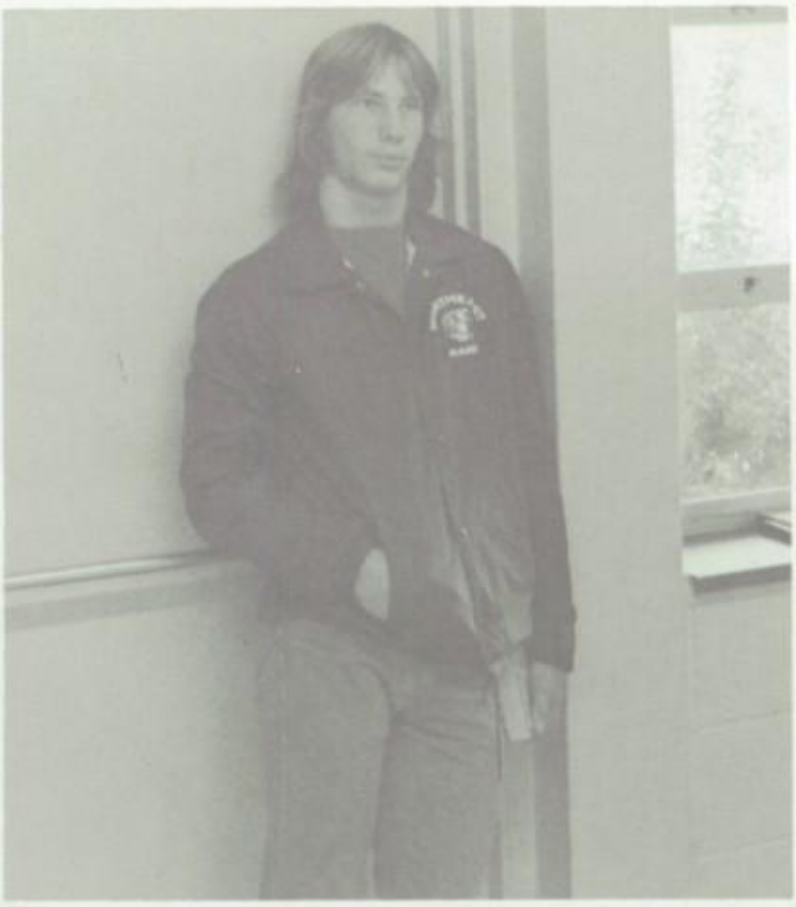
LIFE IS
FOR LIVING . . .

ENJOY

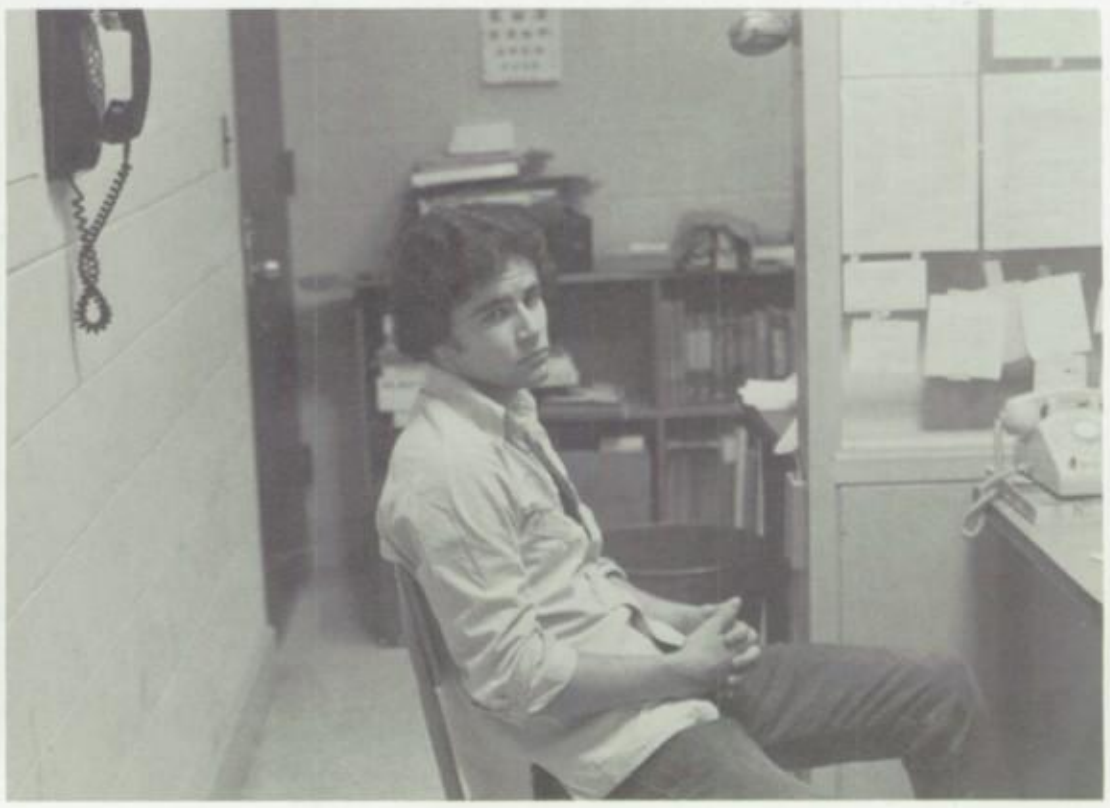
Life goes on continually, and no moment can be here twice. We cannot bring good times back; therefore, we must create as many good times as we possibly can to cherish in the future.

YESTERDAY
WAS FULL OF HAPPINESS . . .



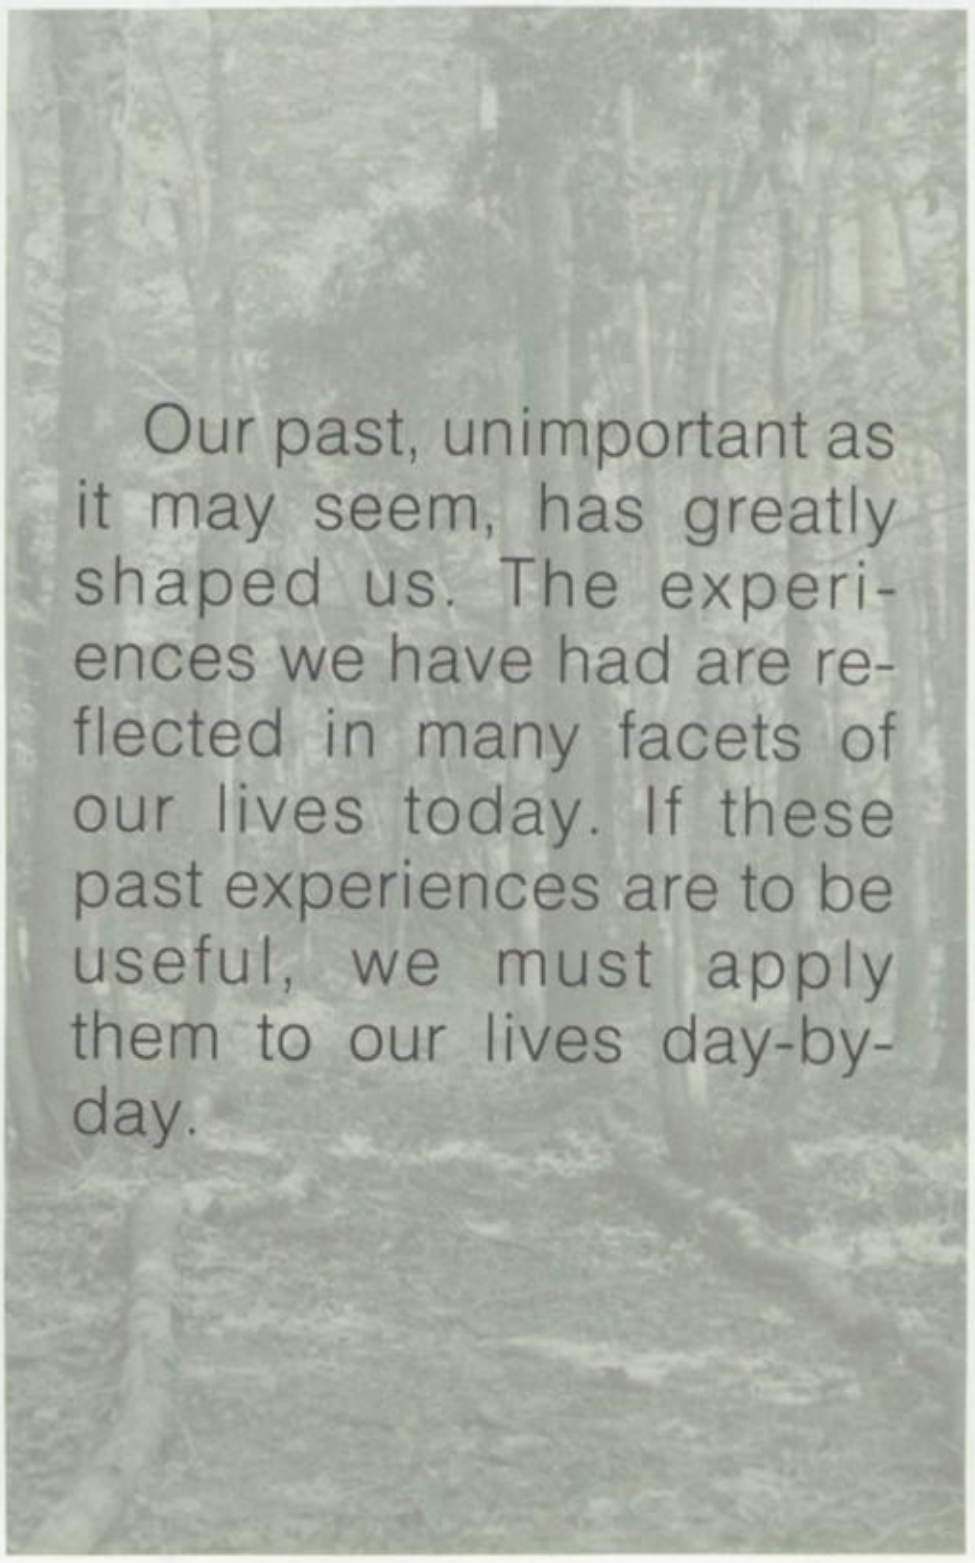


AND PROBLEMS



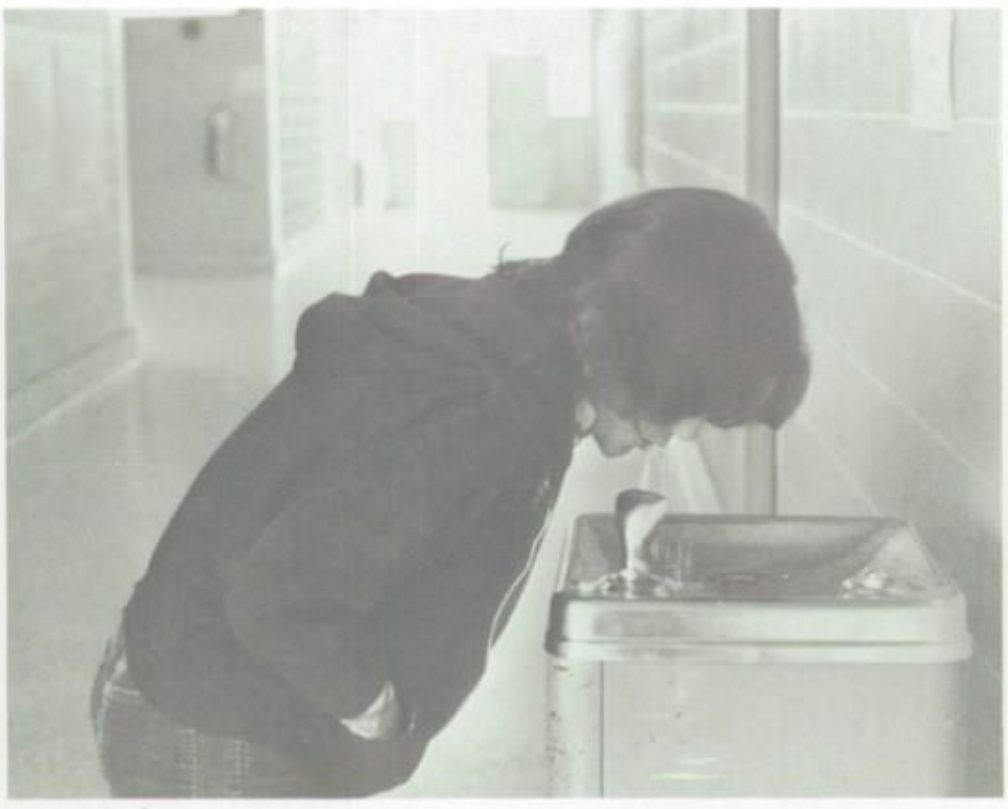
PAST EXPERIENCES ENABLE US TO PREPARE

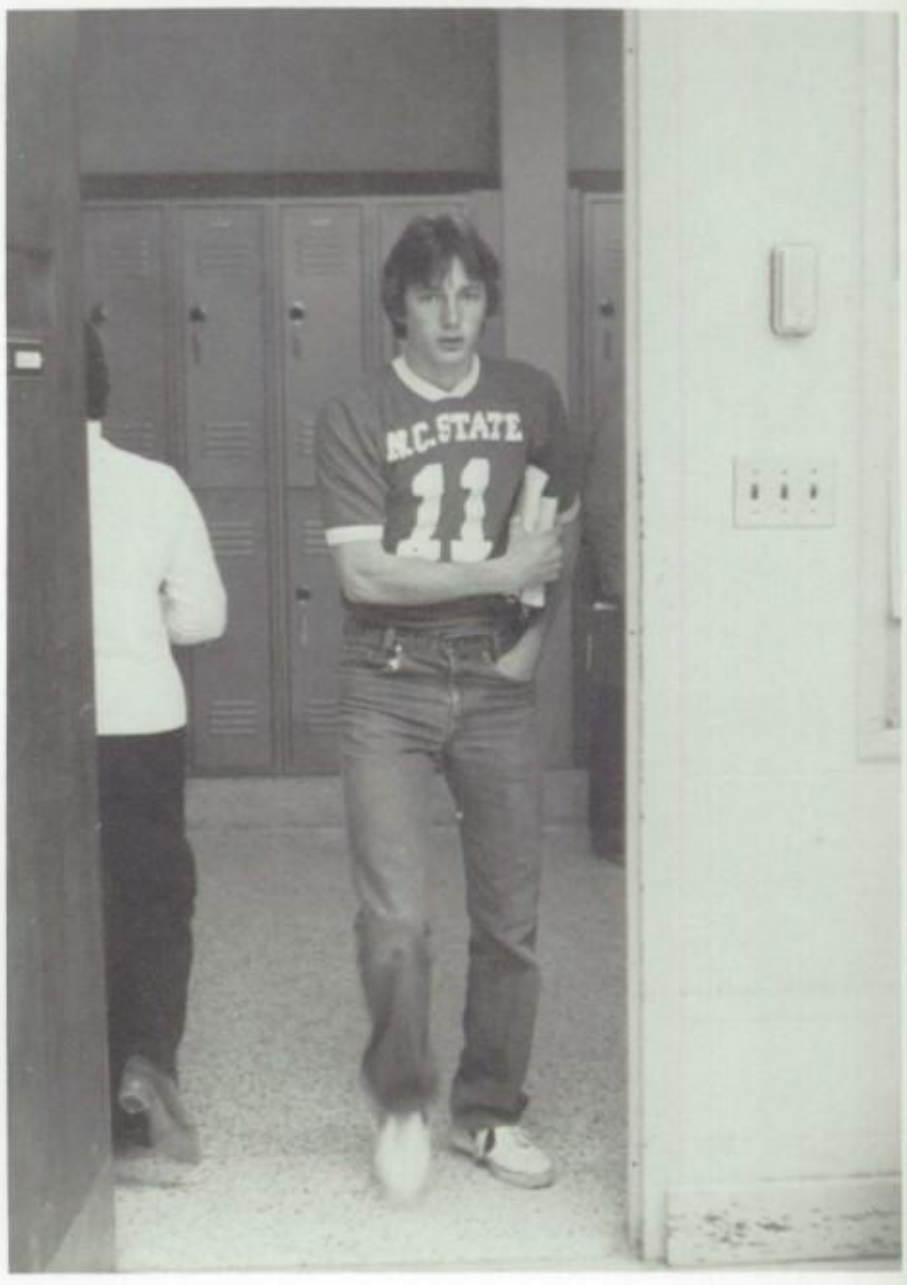
FOR TODAY



Our past, unimportant as it may seem, has greatly shaped us. The experiences we have had are reflected in many facets of our lives today. If these past experiences are to be useful, we must apply them to our lives day-by-day.

TODAY





IS WHAT COUNTS

We cannot change the past; we cannot forsee tomorrow; we can only live and strive one day at a time.

STUDENT LIFE

Graduation, Junior Marshals, Prom . . .

A DARE

Dare to be right! dare to be true!
You have a work that no other can do;
Do it so bravely, so kindly, so well.
Dare to be right, dare to be true!

Homecoming, Miss Aries, Senior Superlatives . . .

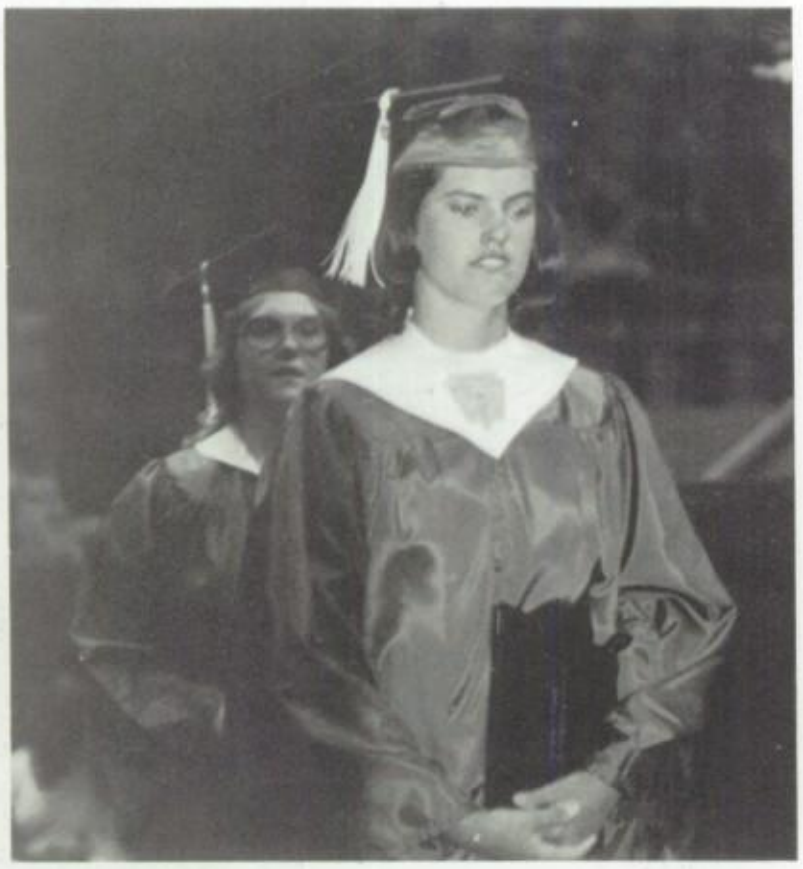
Jerry Trammel, "I really got by with it!"

Mike Varner pauses to reflect upon the fond memories spent at N.E.

GRADUATION, '78

After twelve years of hard work, much frustration, and some fun, the seniors of Northeast became graduates. The goal set many years ago was finally achieved. Now their question is, "What do we strive for?" Each graduate will be faced with the thrills and problems of the world beyond high school. But there will always be a touch of nostalgia when thinking upon the days spent learning and growing at Northeast.



Cheryl Green shows mixed emotions at graduation.

"Hurry and call our names — we graduates have made plans . . ."

JUNIOR MARSHALS

James Fogleman

Jeff Johnson

Debbie Barber

Graduation is also an exciting event for the Junior Marshals. Junior Marshals, those students with top grade-point averages, had the opportunity to be part of the 1978 graduation ceremony.

This year's Marshals helped organize the graduates' marching line and saw that everyone was in his proper place and ready to receive his diploma. Chief Marshal, Paula Apple, had the honor of calling out the graduates' names as they received their diplomas. Thanks to the Junior Marshals, the graduation ceremony of 1978 was a smooth-running success.

PROM NIGHT

Levis and Wranglers were not the scene at the Holiday Inn Airport on May 6, 1978. The dress was formal. The students enjoyed the music of "Cut Glass" and refreshments provided by the Holiday Inn. Each student will enjoy reflecting upon the memories while growing older and finding out that "boogying" just won't be as easy as it once was.

"I could have danced all night . . ."

The Northeast Prom brings out the best in people.

It's times like these that will be cherished.

Lisa Swaney and Susan Kinley prepare to capture moments on film.

Miss Aries

Each year the Senior Class nominates one senior girl to hold the title of Miss Aries. The title of Miss Aries goes to the senior girl who displays outstanding character, personality, charm, poise, school spirit, and school involvement. The 1979 Miss Aries was Sandra Hall, Pep Club President and an active member of the Science Club, Beta Club, and Annual Staff. Sandra also had the honor of being a contestant in the 1979 Greensboro Junior Miss Pageant.

Brotherly love still exists at Northeast Senior High.

Helping Attendance Counselors proves to be more fun than work for Carla Watkins and Cindy Holland.

Students enjoy spending all the time they can on the smoking ramp.

A friend is one to whom one may pour out all the contents of one's heart, chaff and grain together; knowing that the gentlest of hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping and with a breath of kindness, blow the rest away.

translated by
Dinah Maria Craik

Could Roger George really think music is such a drag?

These students take a short-cut through the courtyard to get to class.

The homecoming night of 1979 will certainly be a highlight in the life of Sandy Johnson. Sandy was crowned Homecoming Queen by Susan Gunter, the Homecoming Queen of 1978. Sandy is an active student at Northeast. Besides assuming the responsibilities of the President of the Student Body, she is a serious leader and participant in several clubs and organizations. Congratulations to a very deserving girl.

CLASSES

Class of '79, Clas

Each class is unique in its own way. The sophomores represent a new beginning. Juniors are striving to reach the top, and seniors have begun a long journey into the world of tomorrow. While we are individuals, we all share many common goals and experiences. Together we work for a better tomorrow.

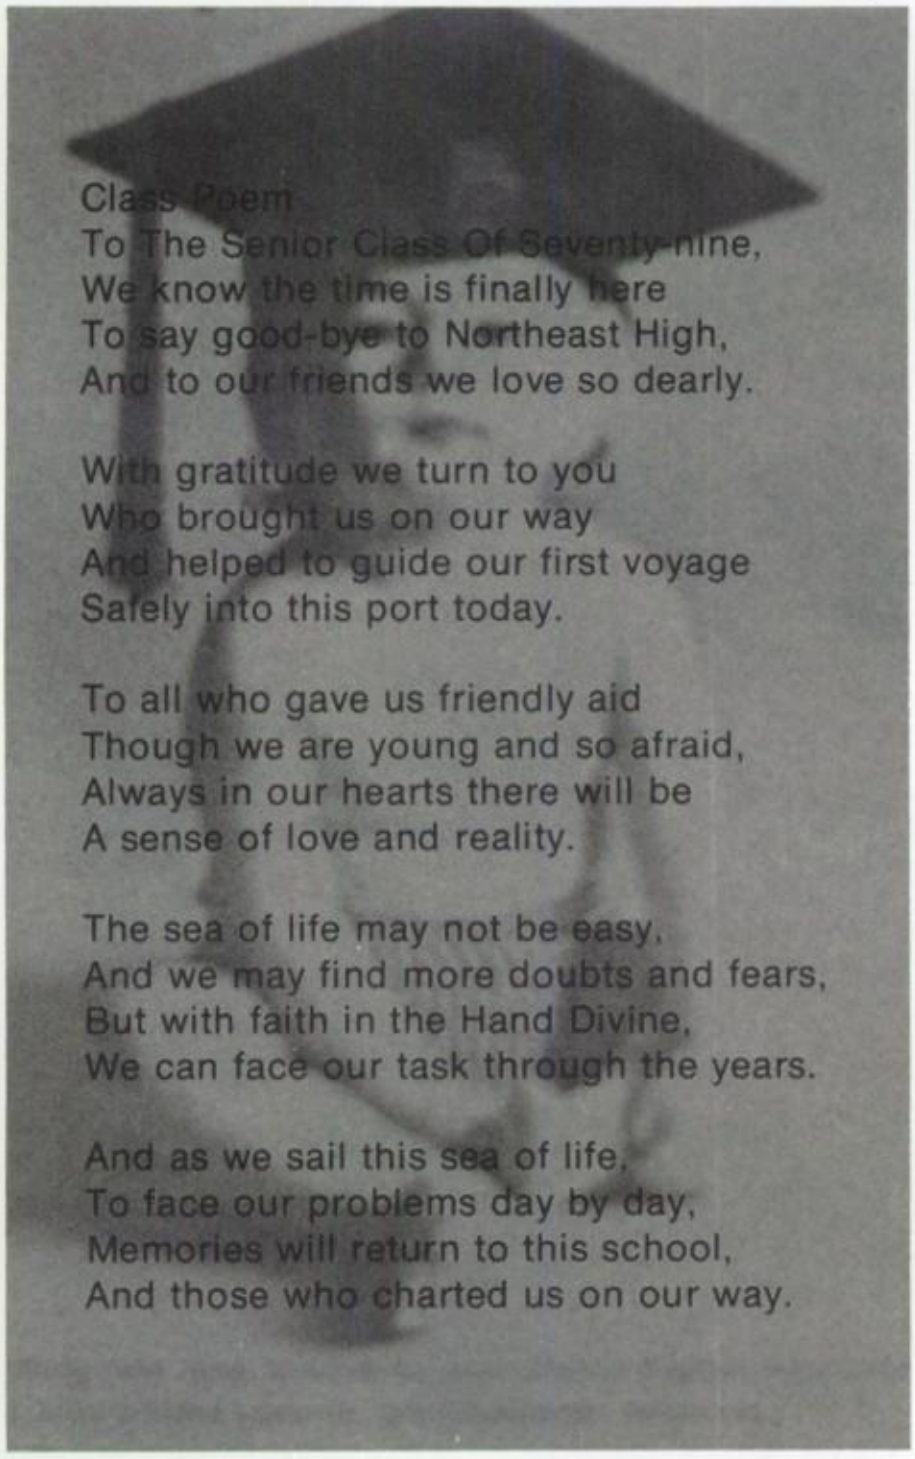
SENIORS A NEW OUTLOOK

Senior Class Officers: Danny Shaw, President; Lisa Swaney, Treasurer; Winoka Summers, Secretary; Oddy Chavis, Vice President.



Class Poem
To The Senior Class Of Seventy-nine,
We know the time is finally here
To say good-bye to Northeast High,
And to our friends we love so dearly.

With gratitude we turn to you
Who brought us on our way
And helped to guide our first voyage
Safely into this port today.

To all who gave us friendly aid
Though we are young and so afraid,
Always in our hearts there will be
A sense of love and reality.

The sea of life may not be easy,
And we may find more doubts and fears,
But with faith in the Hand Divine,
We can face our task through the years.

And as we sail this sea of life,
To face our problems day by day,
Memories will return to this school,
And those who charted us on our way.

John Hood concentrates on next period's test.

JUNIORS . . . THE BIG

Tommy Jefferson and Bill Hutchens, typical juniors.

The Junior year at Northeast Senior High was more than just the second step toward graduation for the class of 1980. It was a year of growing, maturing, and experiencing the most out of life. This year brought many pleasures as well as pains. Juniors received class rings, went to the Junior-Senior Prom, and took the PSAT and Competency Tests. The 1978-79 school year prepared the Junior Class for their last and most important step toward graduation.

Class officers: Randy Oakley, president; Julie Johnson, secretary; Renee Revels, treasurer; Keith Rose, vice president.

SOPHOMORES . . .

The Sophomore Class entered a new environment last summer, but they brought a strong spirit with them. Facing new challenges, they encountered several difficult circumstances but remained determined. After earning a little seniority at the Jr. High, the sophomores were possibly awed and humbled by the Sr. High; however, they quickly adjusted to the different pace. They have been accepted quite readily, and they have continued to be a very important part of Northeast. The Sophomore Class has brought much to our school, and it can be expected to contribute much to our school before June of 1981.

THE LIFE THAT COUNTS
The life that counts must toil and fight;
Must hate the wrong and love the right;
Must stand for truth by day and night;
This is the life that counts.
The life that counts must aim to rise
Above the earth to sunlit skies;
Must fix its gaze on Paradise —
That is the life that counts.
The life that counts must helpful be;
In darkest night make melody;
Must wait the dawn on bended knee —
This is the life that counts.
The life that counts must helpful be;
The cares and needs of others see;
Must seek the slave of sin to free —
That is the life that counts.

1978 VARSITY FOOTBALL —

This season the Varsity Football team changed their course and advanced to represent the 3-A conference in the state playoffs. Although the Rams failed to advance further in the playoffs, they recognized the level of football they have to play to advance and compete in playoff competition. Their record reversed from 7-3 this year.

Both the team and the coaching staff worked together in a more relaxed atmosphere that accounted for the repetition of trememdous performance throughout the season. Head Coach Roy Boyles described his team as one with character and great potential. He felt this was the key to winning some of their close games.

In Coach Boyles' second season at Northeast, he was assisted by a confident staff: veteran Coaches Kelly and Dickens along with new coaches Myers, Owens, Cutts, Stanfield, and Gamble. At the end of the season Coach Roy

JUNIOR VARSITY CHAMPIONS

The Junior Varsity had a very successful year while capturing the Triad 3-A Conference Championship with a perfect 10-0 record. This unblemished record was achieved by a team which featured a wishbone offense which averaged 38 points a game. The offense was complimented by a stingy defense that allowed only 7 points a game. While few in number, this team displayed a strong desire to win.

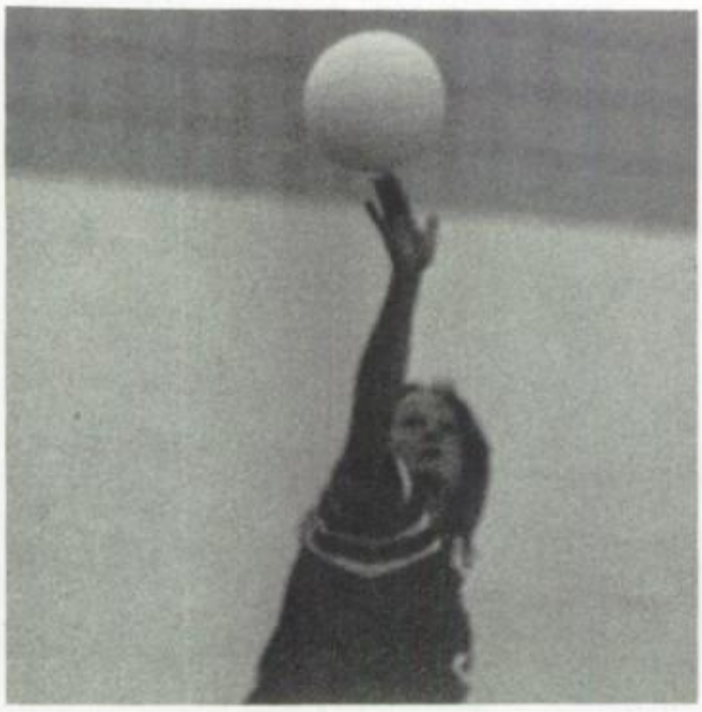
VOLLEYBALL TEAM GIVES



Tracy Hill wills the ball to go over.

Following through is Lisa Scearce's idea of a perfect serve.

Debra Barham waits to set the ball up.

Players are anxious to begin the game.

The volleyball team was young and inexperienced but showed a great deal of support for each other while battling for victories. Coach Owens taught the volleyball team the skills and fundamentals of being good players. Captain Cindy Holland was named the most valuable player. The experience of the seniors will be lost, but the juniors and sophomores are still setting their goal of being the champions of next year.

Team members are having a relaxed moment before a big game.

VARSITY RAMS USE

The 1978-'79 season for the Varsity Basketball Team was one used for rebuilding. With a new coach and the majority of the team new, many changes were made. The team unselfishly sacrificed many hours toward their rebuilding. The enthusiasm they showed this year gave N.E. confidence in its Varsity Basketball Team for next year.

Keith Rose comes out to take a break from a fast-moving quarter.

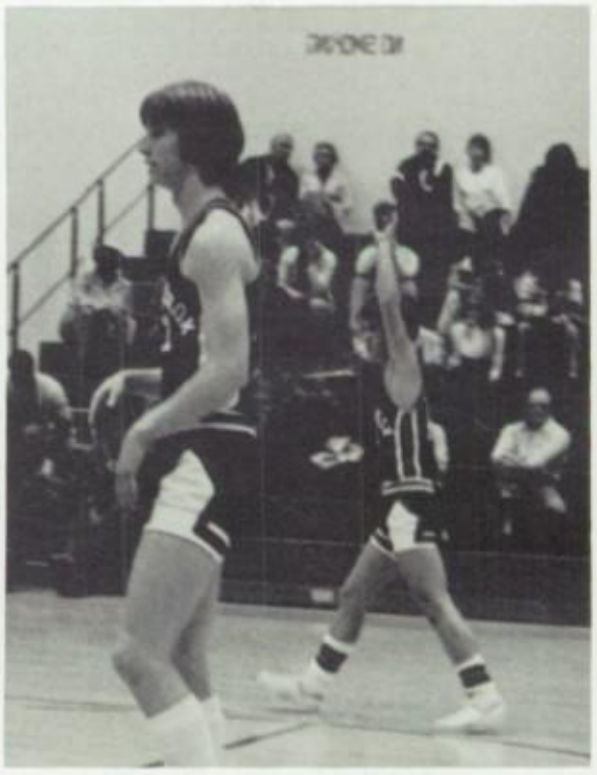
'78-'79 SEASON FOR REBUILDING

The Northeast bench watches the game with great anticipation.

Chris Cockerham keeps careful guard on his opponent.

Wayne Troxler keeps a careful eye on the basket.

Jeff Williamson signals that he has a clean shot.

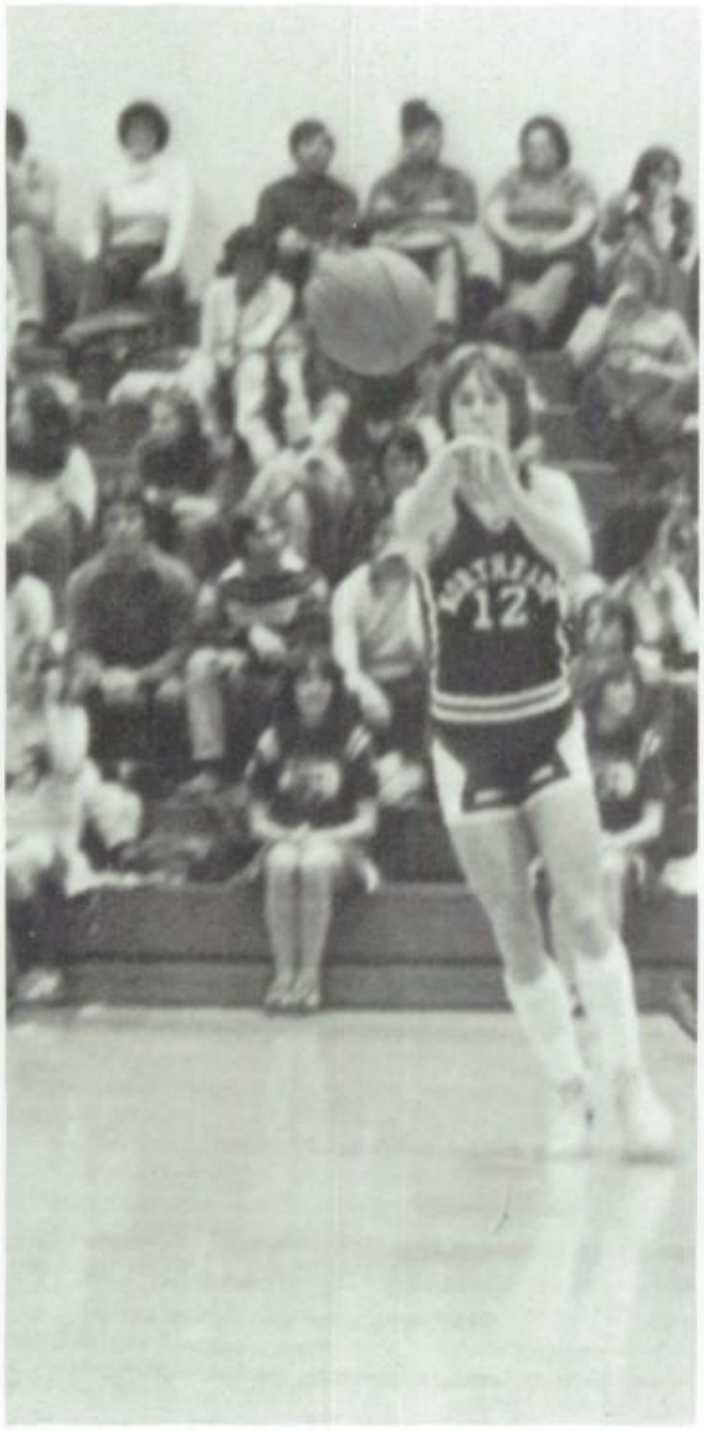


Mike Smith sets up offense against Eastern Guilford.

Coach Gamble takes a minute to go over the plays in his mind to decide on the best one to use.

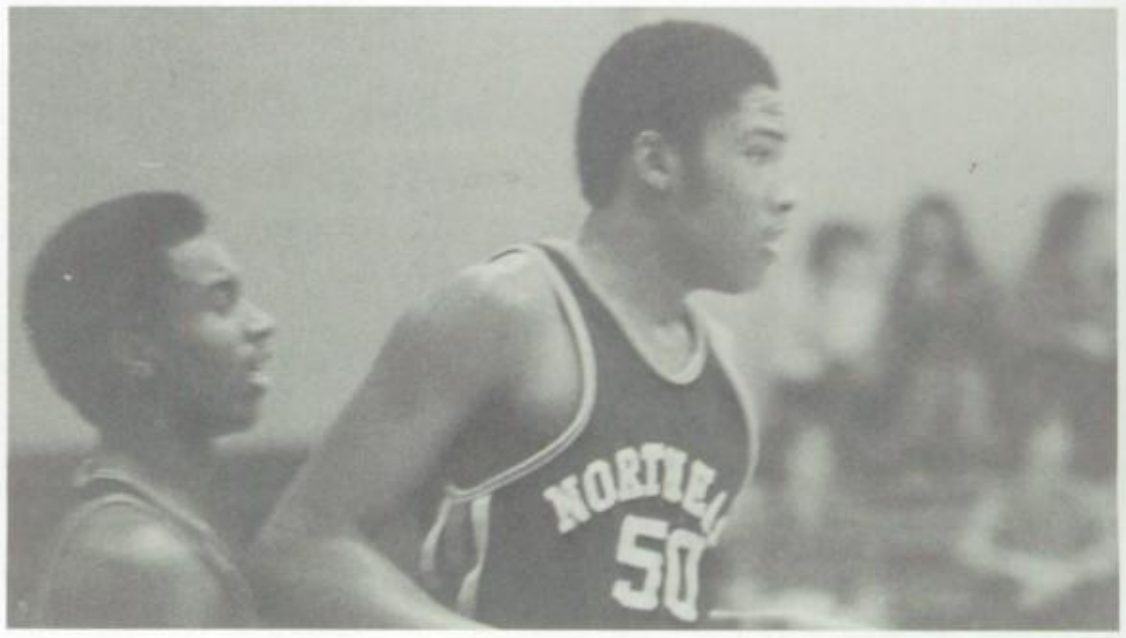
Kerry Clark comes into the game to show Southeast what he can do.

RAMS SHOW DETERMINATION



Mike Smith carries on the offensive play.

Jeff Williamson shows excellent form.



Kerry Clark receives some friendly pep from his fellow teammate.

Jeff Williamson and Wayne Troxler get in position for the inbounds play.

Although the scoreboard for the Northeast Varsity Basketball Team showed only one win in their favor, it did not show the effort, agility, and pain the team endured this year.

There were many unforgettable highlights during the 78-79 season. The team only lost by one point in two games. One was in double overtime and the Rams forced Western Alamance to work twice as hard for that victory. Northeast's enthusiasm and skill proved to be the key factors in the win over rival Eastern Guilford. Northeast is proud of its Varsity Basketball Team and looks forward to next year with great anticipation.

JUNIOR VARSITY DISPLAY

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team had an outstanding season under the careful guidance of Coach Gamble. The attitude of the team was one of the main reasons for their successful season. Coach Gamble felt that this year's team learned much and played hard. He also hopes that future teams can match the skill of the 1978-79 Junior Varsity Basketball Team.

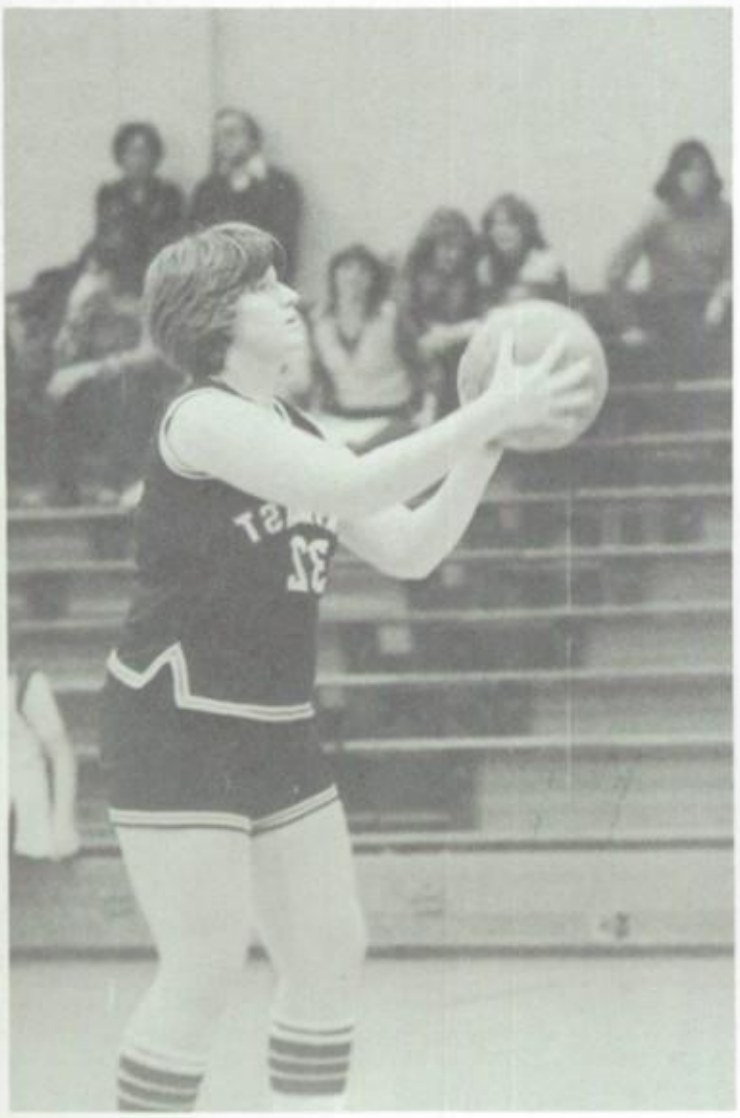
Will Scarlett Pegram make the foul shot?

Deborah Barham is determined to beat those Cougars.



Deep concentration is a must when shooting a foul shot.

Lady Rams warm up for a victory.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT

With careful coaching techniques, Coach Kelly hopes to bring the Rams to VICTORY.

Laura Wrenn anxiously awaits as Tracy Hill attempts a free throw

The '78-'79 season started with Coach Kelly preparing her team for a season's play by drilling them in offensive and defensive techniques. The team consisted of twelve players with Laura Wrenn and Debra Barham as co-captains. Three of the varsity girls were ranked in the top twenty in the conference. Despite the loss of four seniors, Coach Kelly feels that with the progress of the sophomores and with the experience of the returning juniors, next year should be a great season.

Another pin is another victory for Northeast.

Wrestling at Northeast was outstanding this year. Coach Owens felt that everyone on the team improved as the season progressed. Because the team lost only three seniors, there will be many experienced wrestlers returning. Assistant Coach Combs said that next year the team will have more experienced members and supporters should look forward to another winning season.

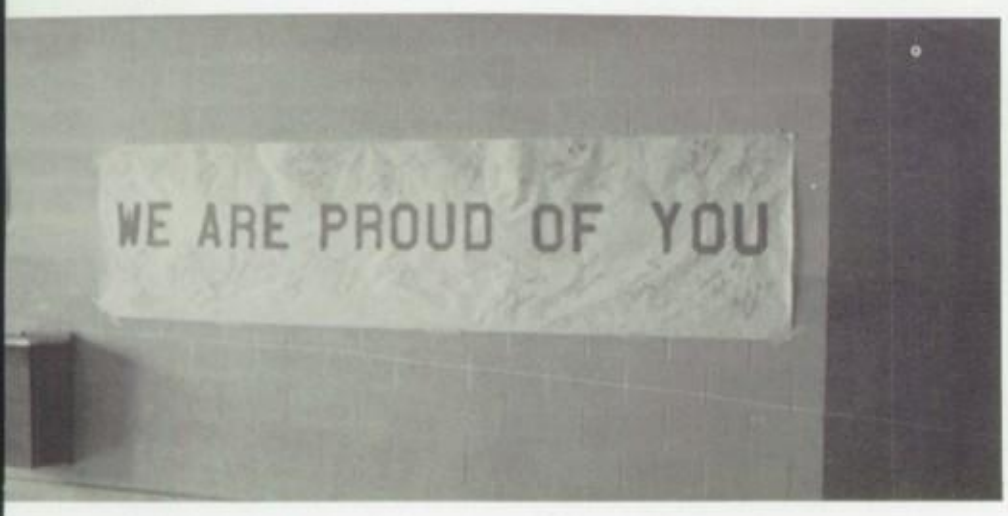
The Varsity Cheerleaders extend much gratitude to their loyal advisor, Ms. Harrington.



A lot of time is put into making posters.

The '78-'79 Cheerleading Squad had a memorable year. They lifted the spirits of the team members and supported the athletic programs. Their tremendous enthusiasm helped build pride in being a Ram.

The squad was made up of six seniors and three juniors. The girls showed their dedication to the Northeast athletic program by sponsoring a dance and serving refreshments to the athletes. When a little pep was needed, we could always rely on our cheerleaders.

This year's wrestling season proved once again to be very encouraging. One reason for the encouragement was the support given by the Grappelettes. Their duties consisted of keeping score, records, and helping in any way they could. Northeast sincerely appreciates all the time and effort sacrificed by the Grappelettes to help push the Northeast Ram Wrestlers to a very exciting and improved season.

BASEBALL PROVES TO BE

Keith Thompson anticipates the pitcher's actions.

Northeast had a successful team record this year. The team set out with one primary goal — to have a winning season. There were many players contributing to their winning season this year. Harlie Miller led in hitting, while Win Hunsucker and Keith Thompson tied for the number of stolen bases. Sophomore Brian Bullard was the leading pitcher with a 5-1 win-lose record. The team finished second in the conference and finished with an overall record of 14-5. Head Coach Luther Smith and the team are looking forward to an even better record next year.

'78 TRACK — DISCIPLINE

Coach Williams gives a look of deep concentration while checking the scores.

The 1978 Northeast Boys' Track Team exercised both physical and mental discipline to achieve the best possible record. Head Coach Barry Williams was continuously boosting the team's morale to get that record. Oddy Chavis, Baron Hunter, and Jeff Williamson were three of the team's members who advanced to the All-Conference. Baron Hunter excelled in the high jump by breaking a record at the sectionals. With the loss of only three seniors, Coach Williams expects to have an improved but experienced team next year.

The first year for the Northeast Ladies' Softball Team was very encouraging. The team's coach, Mrs. Joy Kelly, gave them never-ending support throughout the season. All of the players were very enthusiastic about playing and were determined to have an excellent record. The team depended heavily on Emma Priest for her tremendous batting power. Cindy Holland led the infield at shortstop. The team ended the season with a tie record. Having lost only one player to graduation, the team and Coach Kelly are looking forward to a great season next year.

The 1978-79 Aries Staff worked many long hours to produce this year's annual. Under the supervision of a new advisor, Ms. Leta Pillion, and Editor Danny Shaw, the staff was divided into sections, each having its own job. In general, all were obligated to draw practice and final layouts, fitting pictures onto each of these pages. They were also required to compose copy and get it approved by their assistant, Mr. Edwards. It was then typed on a final copy sheet. Without the precious, over-worked photographers, this annual would be pictureless. It was mandatory for all of this to be sent to the publisher by certain dates, or late fees were charged. The staff worked diligently to produce an annual which is hoped to be long remembered.

Sophomores find Annual Staff a trying experience.

This year, the student council handled all of the Homecoming Week activities, including the crowning of the queen and the dance after the game. This organization has a tradition of being very active in school affairs.

Civinettes is a service organization aimed at helping the surrounding community. They began the year with their notorious initiation and followed through with collecting for UNICEF at Halloween and sponsoring a dance for the last regular season football game. Their main project this year was sponsoring a girl at one dollar per mile in "snow-dough". The setting was a 100-mile course in Canade which was driven through on snowmobiles. The money raised went to handicapped children. Led by advisors Ms. Dixon and Ms. Snipes and president, Debra Dixon, this club completed a very successful year.

JUNIOR CIVITANS

The qualifications of the Junior Civitan Club were a sound reputation for honesty, dependability and good citzenship. The goal of the members was to strive to better their school and community. These high standards made the Junior Civitan Club a respected organization.

Did Gary say what I think he said?

Keith Rose says, "Use Ultra-Brite for a brighter smile."

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Are they already remembering the good ole' days?

"Mama P" gets roses after play.

The National Forensic League here at Northeast is the only one in Guilford County. Throughout the school year the league attended tournaments across the state. The members debated or did dramatic interpretation, exetempt or original oratory. They also performed at various school functions, and many were involved in the school play. Their advisor, Ms. Powers, coached these students a long way and all of them deserved the many points and trophies which they acquired.

"I'm just one wild and crazy guy!" observes Win Hunsucker.

¿HABLA UD. ESPANOL? (Do you speak Spanish?)

The initiation of new members started the year's activities for the Spanish Club. Under the direction of Senior Bullock, the members gathered for monthly after-school and dinner meetings at places such as Los Amigos in Winston-Salem and members' homes. The members sang at Open House, and, during the holiday season, they had a Christmas party. As in past years, the Spanish Club sponsored a few Spanish students to travel to Mexico. While there they lived with a local family and studied at Instituto Fenix, a Spanish school for American students.

Is that Señor Bullock on top of a car?

Beth Owens enjoys Mexico.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANCAIS? (Do you speak French?)

Scarlette Pegram's French must be quite amusing.

Advised by Ms. Woellner, the French Club had one main project, a trip to Bowers Rest Home on Valentine's Day. The members prepared small gifts of candy for the patients. The club, to learn more about French culture, prepared French dishes for one of their dinner meetings. At this meeting there was a slide presentation of the scenery in France. These were some of the activities enjoyed by the French Club this year.

Amy Smith is quite serious at a French Club meeting.

Kneeling L to R: A. Smith (Sec.), J. Fogleman (Pres.), Ms. Woellner (Advisor), K. Hartgrove (V. Pres.), S. Pegram (Treas.). Standing L to R: T. Pinnix, S. Combs, D. Higgins, C. Lumley, R. Davis, and J. Rumley.

FCA — A NEW CLUB

Coach Owens prepares the hamburgers at FCA cookout.

FCA, a new organization, was introduced here at Northeast. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes was formed to promote a Christian influence among all athletes. Guest speakers at a cook-out and breakfast meeting began the club's activities. The members, sponsored by Mr. Owens, attended a hayride in the fall, organized a Christmas project, went to a banquet, and made a trip to the beach.

LIBRARY CLUB PROMOTES READING

The library provides a studious atmosphere.

The goal of the Northeast Library Club is to promote reading and good books throughout the school. The members worked to achieve this goal under the guidance of Ms. Alston, their advisor. Paperback book sales and the display case outside the library were included in the projects of the library club.

Library club advisor, Ms. Alston, finds that her duties must precede pleasures.

Library helper, Lisa Griffin, does necessary jobs.

. . . AND THE BAND

Paul Mabe concentrates on reading his music.

At the beginning of this school year, the Northeast Marching Band walked onto the field with new uniforms. The band performed concerts at school, in the promotion of the Belk's Junior Departments, and at the Junior Women's Club Fashion Show at UNC-G.

This year the Majorettes had more dance routines. In these dance routines they used hoop and neon-gas batons. The Majorettes devoted much time and energy in order to perform well at athletic events.

Anne Murray takes her music seriously.

Can Ms. Gilley be puzzled about the band formation?

BIG HORN CLUB SUPPORTS OUR ATHLETES

These men enrich our athletic program.

The Big Horn Club was formed for the athletes to have fund raising affairs so that trophies and awards could be bought for their deserving team members. This club purchased letters for those participating in varsity sports. They sponsored a bonfire during football season, and later they held a donkey basketball game. Other fund raising activities, guided by Mr. Gamble, were carried out during the year by the Big Horn Club members.

Randy Johnson throws a log into the Big Horn Club bonfire.

Officers: W. Troxler (Pres.), R. Johnson (Vice Pres.), S. Johnson (Sec.), R. Wheeler (Treas.), Mr. Gamble (Advisor).

PEP CLUB HAS CONFIDENCE

Mr. Harrington works on the Northeast Event Board.

At Northeast the Pep Club used its ingenuity, with the help of Mr. Harrington, to create posters and banners for athletic events. "Ram Mania" and the "Classes of '79, '80, and '81" were popular slogans found on the buttons sold by the Pep Club. To further promote spirit, the Pep Club made an "Event Board" to inform all students of future athletic events.

Officers: Lisa Weaver (Pres.), Ginger Cuathren (Libr.), Teresa Hayes (Sec.).

ADVANCED CHORUS DISPLAYS PERFECTION IN CHORUS MUSIC

Ms. Owens directs the music.

The Advanced Chorus of Northeast participated in many activities this year. Included were programs of Christmas music held at the Starmount Villa Nursing Home, Forum VI, Evergreens, and Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church. They also gave a Christmas concert in the school auditorium for parents and students. To be in this chorus, each student had to have approval through special auditions. They sang many different types of music from religious to pop rock.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Sharon Holleman and Debra Dixon are glad inductions are over.

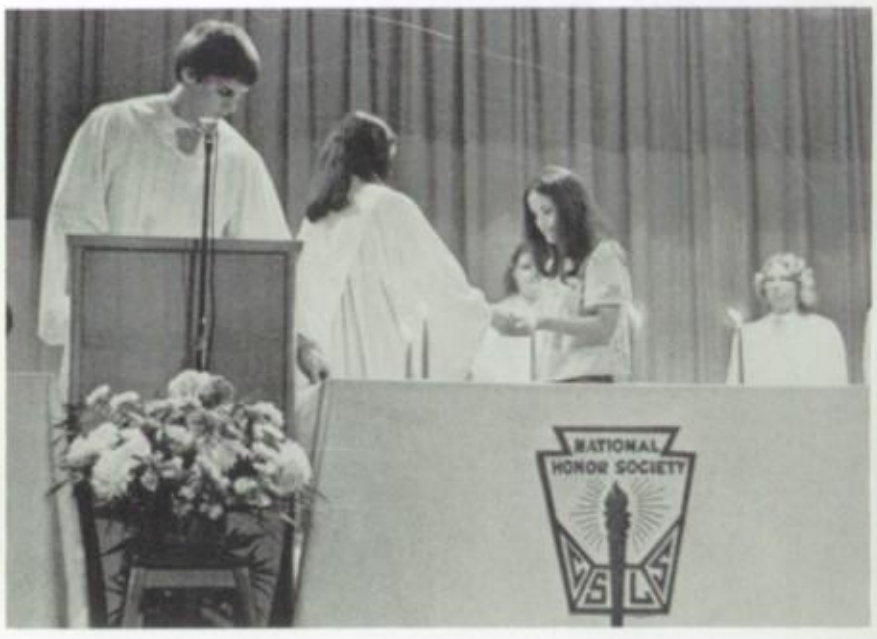
James Fogleman and Jeff Johnson wait to be inducted.

The National Honor Society, advised by Ms. Sara Farthing, is an organization for those students who are outstanding in leadership, scholarship, character, and service. The Honor Society's final induction ceremony was held last March for qualified students. A few members from the Honor Society attended the North Carolina National Honor Society Convention held at Wrightsville Beach in April.

Paula Apple and her parents discuss Honor Society's future plans.



Sharon Holleman receives her Honor Society pin.

BETA CLUB

Officers are: Janet Parsons (Vice Pres.), Debra Dixon (Sec.), Cindy Brown (Treas.), John Hood (Pres.).

The National Beta Club is a club which consists of those persons with an average of B or above. The induction ceremony, held in October, accepted thirty new members who qualified. The sponsors this year were Ms. Goolsby and Mr. Edwards.

Members take the oath during inductions.

HIGH I.Q. TEAM

This year the High I.Q. Team consisted of seven outstanding seniors. The team participated in the annual High I.Q. Bowl which was held at UNC-G. Their sponsor was Ms. Harrington.

SCIENCE MIXES WITH EVERYDAY LIFE

Mr. Medley (Advisor), Cindy Brown (V. Pres.), Winoka Summers (Sec.), Paula Apple (Treas.), Barry Crews (Pres.).

With Mr. Medley and Mr. Isley as advisors, the Science Club members became better acquainted with the role of science in their everyday lives. The club's activities included a CPR course open to any interested persons and dinner meetings which featured guest speakers. The Science Club went on field trips to the Health Career Day at North Carolina Memorial Hospital, to the Lane Planetarium at the Natural Science Center, and to the NASA Langley Research Center in Hampton, Virginia. Also a few members of the Science Club went to an elementary school and taught a science class.

Fun comes with being a Science Club member.

Mr. Medley lectures on some fine points of science.

ART CLUB DISPLAYS IMAGINATION AND TALENT

Sitting L to R: Beth O'Bryant, Cindy Meetze, Tina Pinnix (Treas.). Kneeling L to R: Laura Worley, Nancy Watterson (Vice Pres.). Standing L to R: Lori Middleton, Peggy Britian, Danny Shaw, Laura Scott (Pres.). Not Pictured: Teresa Coffey.

Nancy Watterson is busy at work on her "masterpiece".

Laura Scott and Beth O'Bryant discuss future art club plans.

The Northeast Art Club, advised by Mrs. Lehmann, consists of those students who are talented or interested in the art field. This year the art club arranged a field trip for the Art II class in April to the North Carolina Museum of Art in Raleigh, worked on several art exhibits and contests throughout the year, and also beautified the bulletin board by the guidance office with their works of art.

Danny Shaw waits to finish canvas board.

Teresa Coffey busies herself drawing with ink.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America has always been a club with many activities. This year was no exception. They attended the district rally at Reidsville High School, the state convention in Raleigh, and several members flew to New York for the national convention. They served at a Junior Women's Club banquet, had a booth at the GYC carnival and did a display which won second place at the Guilford County Fair. They also had secret grandparents at a local resthome and met them at a party at the end of the year. Their car in the homecoming parade tied for first place. A combination mother-daughter banquet and installation program was held marking the end of another active year.

FUTURE SECRETARIES OF AMERICA

Standing L to R: Ms. Raleigh (Advisor), Sue Williams, Vivian Moore, Teresa Flinchum, Beth Causey, Tammy East, Penny Chappell, Carol Rich, Sherri Critz, Tammy Lovelace, Sherri Klutz, Janice Booker, Renee Jones, Donna McCain, Gail Slade, Kim Monk. Sitting L to R: Lisa Lee (Treas.), Lisa Cooke (Vice Pres.), Cathy King (Pres.), Angela Hopkins (Sec.). NOT PICTURED: Gail Causey.

Gail Causey occupies herself until class is over.

Carol Rich concentrates hard on her typing.

The Future Secretaries of America, advised by Mrs. Raleigh, is an association to help students who are interested in a clerical or secretarial future. Mrs. Raleigh's goals are to better familiarize each student with the secretarial world and some of the problems that may arise.

These future secretaries better prepared themselves by tours they went on of R.J. Reynolds, the City Museum, and J.P. Stevens. They also attended the Duke Power Christmas Program, a seminar in Charlotte to hear guest speakers, and the F.S.A. Annual Meeting held during March and April in Raleigh.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Getting to know the world of teaching and just how it works is what Future Teachers of America is all about. With the help of advisor Ms. Shores, each member became more familiar with the teaching profession. The Future Teachers' Activities included giving the Teacher of the Year Award and a scholarship to a senior member. They also had guest speakers to give them information about the field of education.

BUS CLUB — LOAD OF RESPONSIBILITY

A bus driver prepares to pick up elementary students for his route.

Students depart school for the buses.

With utmost safety on their minds, the members of the Bus Club transported students to and from school each day. Mr. Kelly assisted these students so that they took care in handling the buses. The main requirements for becoming a member were to pass rigid road and written tests. Many of us now realize the immense pressure and responsibility one accepts as a member of the Bus Club.

The "Lone Bus" waits for its passengers.

Officers are: R. Johnson (Pres.), R. Tatum (V. Pres.), S. Freeman (Treas.), Mr. Kelly (Adv.), Mr. Myers (Adv.).

DRAFTING AND PRINTING CLUBS

Two objectives of the Printing Club were to give the members current information on printing techniques and hopefully encourage them to investigate the graphic field. Advisor Mr. Morrison aided in this aim. They planned field trips to Forsyth Technical Institute, the Greensboro News Company, and local printing firms to see the advancements in graphics. Guest speakers also came during the year.

Row 1 L to R: A. Brown, T. Vaughn (Sec.-Treas.), B. Toler (Pres.), J. Gunter, R. Payne. Row 2 L to R: C. Griffin (V. Pres.), T. Brooks, R. Presnell, T. Jefferson, J. Calhoun, Mr. Morrison (Advisor).

Officers: J. Hood (V. Pres.), M. Hartsoe (Treas.), J. Walton (Sec.), O. Chavis (Pres.), Mr. McLean (Advisor).

Having guest speakers at dinner meetings and monthly meetings formed part of the year's activities for the Drafting Club. With the help of Mr. McLean, this club tried to achieve a better understanding of the drafting industry and other related occupations. To accomplish this goal, the members planned field trips to Carolina Steel and Western Electric, Guilford Center.

ICT AND DECA DEVELOP FUTURE LEADERS

Industrial Cooperative Training, Advisor: Mr. Stanfield.

DECA, Distributive Education Clubs of America, works to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution. Under the leadership of Ms. Snipes, the members worked at jobs involving them in these areas. Their club activities supplemented on-the-job experience. Activities included attending district conferences and the State Leadership Conference and competing in contests such as job interview, public speaking, and various phases of marketing.

ICT, Industrial Cooperative Training, is a member of V.I.C.A. Sponsored by Mr. Stanfield, the program placed emphasis on good general business relationships. The members enjoyed a wide scope of activities that helped prepare them to be better workers and consumers. All of the participants were employed in situtations where they learned business techniques and operation procedures.

Distributive Education Clubs of America, Advisor: Ms. Snipes.

VICA INTRODUCES STUDENTS

Students in bricklaying, auto mechanics, and carpentry classes were eligible to be members of VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. These students were taught a trade which prepared them for a job after high school. The training they received and the skills they developed will be an asset to any company and will prove beneficial to their future. These students will continue to learn and develop within these trades after they leave school.

Cone fabrics have meant ease and comfort right from the start ... since 1895, when Americans first started living in them.

One of our early offerings was Cone deeptone denim. And soon we became the leading manufacturer of this popular fabric.

Next came corduroy. Once the fabric of kings, it became a favorite among Americans of all ages.

But Cone didn't stop there. In fact, denim and corduroy are just two of the many fabrics that have won acclaim for Cone Mills in its 83-year history.

Today, with 21 modern plants, Cone creates a whole line of quality fabrics for casualwear, sportswear, sleepwear, uniforms and career apparel. Fabrics for home decorating and sewing—even polyurethane foam—are now a part of the Cone family of products.

The almost 14,000 employees of Cone Mills are proud of their part in creating the basic fabrics that are the backbone of American casual fashion ... and proud of the satisfaction each fabric gives you.

Many individuals have contributed to the development of this annual. We are indebted to these people and would like to say "thank you" to:

— Mr. Boswell, who provided many excellent photographs;
— Mr. Kelly, for helping with our pictures;
— Mr. Edwards, for his advice on our copy;
— Everyone who sold ads for us;
— Everyone who has been patient and supportive of our staff.

We also cannot forget to thank the students, for they made this year at Northeast possible, made the events, and created the memories. We sincerely hope that this annual will help preserve the many memories of this past year.

Lori
This has been a good year and seeing you helped make it even better. Good luck to you and Rusty.

Take care "79"
